

MIREES WORKSHOP SERIES

Civil society and media in the era of full censorship in Russia

Ekaterina Martynova (journalist, DOXA)

with the participation of

Alexander Gubsky (The Moscow Times)

DOXA is an independent online Russian media platform, reporting on the Russian war on Ukraine, political repression, and social inequality. Born as a student media, it has covered and supported many pro-democracy initiatives, anti-censorship university protests, campaigns in support of political prisoners, as well as the 2022 anti-war protests.

This lecture is part of The Moscow Time (TMT) lecture series, organised to give voice to some of Russia's best-know journalists, who fled their country to avoid being sentenced to prison under Putin's "fake news law"

Organiser: Prof Matteo Dian

21 October

h. 13.00-15.00, Room 15 TH

online

MIREES
Joint Master degree

