CYDIPLO – European Cyber Diplomacy

Workshop 2 – Diversifying Cyber Diplomacy

6th-7th June 2022

Hosted by the Department of Political and Social Sciences, University of Bologna

Theme

 "Diversifying Cyber Diplomacy" is the CYDIPLO project's second workshop and will be hosted by the Department of Political and Social Sciences of the University of Bologna. The aim of the workshop is a) to bring together academia, think tanks and public and private institutions and b) to bring all the CYDIPLO network teachers and researchers together and will focus on issues including, gender issues in cyber security and diplomacy, perspectives from the global south, capacity building challenges in emerging cyberdiplomacy nations, non-traditional/non-western forms and approaches to cyberdiplomacy. As well as a series of roundtable discussions, the workshop will include talks from those actively involved in cyber diplomacy and leading academics in the field. Day 1 of the workshop will be open to the public and streamed.

Format

The Workshop will be held in a blended form.
- Roundtable
    - Duration: 1h 15mins
    - Speakers will talk for 7/8 minutes each discussing questions that will be circulated in advance
    - Q&A with the audience
- Keynote
    - Duration: 45 mins
    - Speaker will talk for 15/20 minutes
    - Q&A with the audience

Outputs

The workshop will result in detailed plans for delivery of the planned Special Issue, lead to a) a workshop summary on the basis of which an issue brief on diversifying cyberdiplomacy will be published, b) help to develop the sections of the handbook pertaining to non-traditional, non-western, approaches to cyberdiplomacy, and will examine the role of countries and actors in the global south, c) discuss the material produced for the Special Issue
